

Educational Services

The leadership of New Education for the Workplace (NEWCorp) features many years of experience in the classroom, school administration, and private sector. The complementary experiences from traditional, alternative, and charter school settings forms a multi-dimensional and entrepreneurial team prepared to serve a variety of educational organizations. NEWCorp has successfully written charters in several states including Arizona, Florida, Georgia, and New Mexico. NEWCorp has the capacity to consult in a numerous administrative, financial, human resources, and other needs of new and existing educational organizations.

Educational Services

The leadership of New Education for the Workplace (NEWCorp) features many years of experience in the classroom, school administration, and private sector.

The complementary experiences from traditional, alternative, and charter school settings forms a multi-dimensional and entrepreneurial team prepared to serve a variety of educational organizations.

NEWCorp has successfully supported local efforts to develop charter school programs in several states including Arizona, Florida, Georgia, and New Mexico.

NEWCorp has the capacity to consult in a numerous administrative, financial, human resources, and other needs of new and existing educational organizations.

To learn more about working with NEWCorp, please contact us at 760-945-1227.